

TVÍBURI

TVÍBURI is a Danish chamber ensemble built around the musical connection of twin sisters Karen Johanne Pedersen (violin) and Kirstine Elise Pedersen (cello). Performing as a string duo and, together with pianist Jakob Alsgaard Bahr, as a piano trio, the ensemble brings together a lifelong musical bond and more than fifteen years of shared artistic collaboration.

Rooted in the classical tradition, Tvíburi draws on its members' diverse experiences in contemporary music, orchestral performance and Nordic folk traditions. The ensemble has appeared at festivals including Hindsgavl and Bornholm and in chamber music societies across Denmark.

In 2025, Tvíburi released its debut album on Evidence Classics, featuring the complete piano trios of American composer Lowell Liebermann, including the world-premiere recording of his Third Piano Trio. The recording received international critical acclaim for its expressive depth, technical precision and exceptional musical chemistry.
